Personal Information Collection Statement

This is a statement to inform you of your rights under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance.

1. Personal information is provided by you as an applicant through the completion of application procedures and forms designated for the purpose of enrolling in the program "Contemporary Asian Art: An Insider's View". Data collected are used specifically for the purposes prescribed in the application forms and will serve:
 - a) as evidence for verification of the applicant's identity and other information; and
 - b) where applicable, as part of the applicant's official records.

In the case of 1 (b) above, information so incorporated into the Faculty of Arts' records will be used for all purposes relating to the users' eligibility to services as required by the relevant regulations and procedures of the University.

2. Personal data will be kept confidential and handled by the Faculty of Arts' staff members. The Faculty may transfer some of the data to an agent or other persons appointed to undertake some of its functions related to service provision.
3. Under the provisions of the Ordinance, you have the right to request the Faculty of Arts to ascertain whether it holds your personal data, to be given a copy, and to apply for correction of the data, if deemed incorrect.
4. Applications for access to and correction of personal data should be made in writing and on payment of a fee if necessary. Such applications as well as requests for information should be addressed to Mr Cyrus Chan (Tel: +852 3917 4984 or Email: cyrusc@hku.hk), Faculty of Arts, The University of Hong Kong.
