

NGO Lunch Workshop and Sharing Session to discuss Comparative Strategies to Engage Stakeholders and Address Gender Based Violence: Global Trends and Local Imperatives

Date: 12 Jan 2017 (Wednesday)

Time: 12:30pm - 2:30pm

Venue: Room 319, 3/F Cheng Yu Tung Tower, Centennial Campus, HKU

NGO colleagues working on the frontlines of tackling gender based violence issues are invited to engage with academics from HKU and our guest of honour Professor Diane Rosenfeld from Harvard Law School, where she runs the Gender Violence Program, to discuss strategies for engagement of stakeholders to address gender based violence.

Diane L. Rosenfeld, J.D., LL.M., is a Lecturer on Law and the founding Director of the Gender Violence Program at Harvard Law School where she teaches courses on Title IX, Gender Violence, Law and Social Justice, and Theories of Sexual Coercion. She is a leading national expert on the development and implementation of best practices for eradicating sexual assault and has advised both the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights and the White House Task Force on Protecting Students from Sexual Assault. Ms. Rosenfeld is featured in two recent documentaries on campus sexual assault: The Hunting Ground and It Happened Here.

A frequent public speaker, Ms. Rosenfeld has appeared in national and local media. She was recently awarded a "Woman of Inspiration Award" by Ms.JD, and an award for Teaching Excellence at Harvard Law School for Intersectionality in Feminist Legal Theory.
