Stepping into the shoes of Queers

Arts Association, H.K.U.S.U., Session 2016-2017

"It is me" Belonging Exhibition
Belongings representing the owners' gender identities were exhibited alongside the written description of their life experience so that a more realistic and lively illustration can be provided to students.

Film Screening and Sharing
Through the stories of a group of transsexuals and drag queens in their sixties and seventies taking on the stage one last time, the documentary hopes to inspire the audience to have the courage to take risks, try new things, and most importantly, be yourself.

Before the Last Curtain Falls
Film Screening and Sharing
DATE: APRIL 5, 2017(WED)

Books Fair
A collection of books with topics related to gender and sexuality were on sale. This activity aims to enhance students' understanding on gender-related issues and foster intellectual exchange.

Human Library
The aim of Human Library is to eliminate discrimination and prejudice through creating dialogues between gender minorities and students with face-to-face communication and encourage them to think in a different perspective.

Interactive Talk: Body, Sexual Pleasure, and Sex Toys
The objective of the interactive talk is to break the rigid boundaries of discussion about sex, with the demonstration of various kinds of sex toys. The owner of Sally's Toy, a sex toy shop, was invited to share her experience.
Committee on Gender Equality and Diversity and Arts Association, H.K.U.S.U. co-organised a student forum regarding Gender, Sexuality and Diversity.

The forum aims to introduce the Committee to the students, and invite students to engage in discussion on gender-related issues.

Topics including gender studies in the curriculum, gender-neutral facilities, inclusive language, and prevention of sexual harassment training, etc, were discussed in the forum.
