Get Inspired
Minor in Buddhist Studies
Who can apply?

Students from ALL faculties are welcome to declare the minor in Buddhist Studies.
How will you benefit?

- Enrich your major field of study with insights and wisdom from the Buddha
- Nourish your inner life with self-awareness, positive thoughts and serenity
- Learn about an important component of Chinese culture
- Acquire skills to enhance your psychological well-being, including mindfulness practice which has been increasingly valued by many public and private sectors, including corporates such as Google, Apple, and Nike
What is required?

Total: 36 credits

2 compulsory core courses
BSTC1001 Introduction to Buddhist teachings
BSTC1003 Introduction to religious studies

4 advanced courses/cross-listed advanced courses (for 2018/19)
BSTC2002 Life and Buddhism
BSTC2004 Chinese Buddhism and ritual
BSTC2005 Buddhism in today's world
BSTC2006 Buddhist psychology and mental cultivation
BSTC2008 Sanskrit language I
BSTC2010 Buddhist art and architecture
BSTC2014 Chinese Buddhist art
BSTC2015 Tibetan language I
BSTC2016 Pāli language I
BSTC2017 Buddhism and economics
BSTC2018 Tibetan Language II
BSTC2019 Pāli language II
BSTC2020 Sanskrit language II
How should I plan for course selection?

• You can take all the courses above during any year of study.

• However, we highly encourage you to study the two compulsory core courses in Year 1/Year 2 so that you could be better prepared for studying the advanced courses.
Look for more details?

http://www.buddhism.hku.hk/minor.htm