Course Title: The Foreign Relations of China since 1949

Course Code: HIST2018

Instructor: Dr. Aurelio Insisa

Abstract: This course studies developments in China’s foreign relations after 1949, with reference to historical influences, ideological premises, and practical political, strategic, and economic considerations. Special attention is given to the interaction between theory and practice in China’s foreign relations, the evolution of the impact of China’s foreign policy on international politics and vice versa, and the assessment of major paradigms.
